

At CAMP SOLONG, we have tailored a program which makes use of the potential condition of the Farewell. Recognizing it as the most essential experience of not just Summer Camp, but existence at large, our three-day summer camp program is stacked full with around-the-clock fun and relaxing activities and contemporary methods that simulate and prepare our campers for their inevitable and eventual departure from Camp. Through guided exercises and games, like these listed below, you will be given the chance to sift through the entire “goodbye - universe” in all of its stinging colors.

- Emotional Trashbinning,
